Mirko Errico

Game Producer / Project Manager & QA Lead

Naples, Italy (willing to relocate) | mirkoerrico27@gmail.com | linkedin.com/in/mirkoerrico

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Game producer and QA lead at Meangrip Game Studios, credited on Bye Sweet Carole (Webby Award winner, Annie Awards nominee), Roots in the Sky and Dupin. I keep development teams on schedule by assigning work person by person and acting as the link between management and the team, and I take builds through certification on Nintendo Switch, Steam, GOG, itch.io and Google Play. Before games I worked as a cook and a waiter, where I learned to lead a team under pressure.

CORE SKILLS

Production: Task planning and assignment, milestone tracking, stakeholder communication, risk assessment, Agile, Scrum
QA: Test plans, bug tracking and triage, regression testing, build verification
Platforms & certification: Nintendo Switch (Lotcheck / TRC), Steamworks, GOG, itch.io, Google Play Console
Tools: Jira, Trello, Notion
Languages: Italian (native), English (professional working proficiency)

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Junior Producer / Lead Tester, Meangrip Game Studios 01/2024 - Present
Naples, Italy

- Manage the development team: break work into tasks, assign them per person and follow up toward milestones.
- Act as the link between management and the team to clarify deadlines and objectives, and between the studio and the publisher (Maximum Entertainment).
- Own build readiness and store submissions on Nintendo Switch, Steam, GOG, itch.io and Google Play; fixed each finding from failed Lotcheck rounds and resubmitted until approval.
- Lead QA across projects: test plan execution, bug tracking and triage on a large volume of issues across PC and consoles.
